

You can still apply if you don't have everything

You don't have ID?

That's okay.

You don't have a permanent address?

That's okay.

You don't remember when you were in care?

That's okay.

You don't remember which CFS agency was involved?

That's okay.

To get started, we only need your full name and date of birth.

Applying is free

You do not need a lawyer.

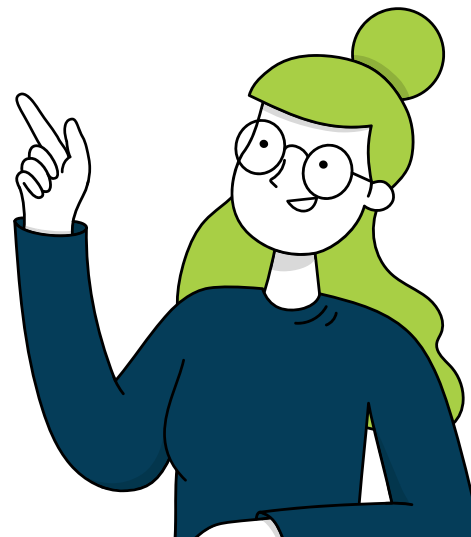

You do not need a computer.

You can get help with your application.

You can apply:

- Online
- By phone
- By mail
- In-person

If you need a paper application, we can mail one to you with prepaid return postage.

What happens if I qualify?

If you are eligible, your settlement money will be paid to you. The money is yours.

If you are 18 or older, you can choose how you receive your money.

If you are under 18, we hold compensation money in trust until you turn 18 years old.

You can receive it all at once, or choose a payment plan that spreads your money out over time.

Choosing a payment plan is optional. Financial advice and guidance is available.
